

VILLAGE MARKETS IN YATTON AND CLAVERHAM

Two village markets are held in the parish each month selling a good selection of local produce and handicrafts – one in Claverham and one in Yatton.

Local produce for sale includes eggs and meat, vegetables and fruit, cheese, homemade preserves and honey, and bread and cakes. A wide selection of plants and flowers in season is usually available, as well as handmade greetings cards and jewellery, plus hand-carved items made from local wood.

Both markets have a welcoming community feel and include indoor facilities for tea and coffee supplied by local residents and community groups.

The markets are held in their respective local village halls from 10-12 noon. Yatton Village Market is usually held on the second Saturday of each month and Claverham Village Market is on the third Saturday. Dates are set out below for the remainder of 2009. For more information or to book a stall contact (for Claverham) Jean Watson on 01934 838017 and (for Yatton) Karen Lee-Bapty on 01934 876782.
